

WIC Eligibility

What is WIC?

WIC is a nutrition program that helps pregnant and postpartum individuals, infants, and children eat well and stay healthy.

Who's eligible?

- Pregnant persons;
- Postpartum parents (up to six months after delivery);
- Breast/chestfeeding parents (up to one year after delivery);
- Infants (babies under the age of one);
- Children under the age of five.

You must live in Indiana, be a United States citizen or Qualified Alien (if age 18 or over), and meet income guidelines. The guidelines are on the back side of this brochure or at wic.in.gov.

What does WIC provide?

- Healthy foods designed to meet special nutrition needs including seasonal fresh produce benefits to purchase from local farmers;
- Nutrition and health screening and assessment;
- Nutrition education and counseling;
- Breast/chestfeeding support, including breast/chestfeeding parents receiving additional nutritional foods from WIC, one-on-one support from Peer Counselors, and access to lactation professionals;
- Referrals to other Indiana health, family, and social services.

How does WIC work?

Contact the WIC clinic in your community for a free visit to be enrolled and pick up benefits. Clinic information may be found at wic.in.gov under WIC Clinic Locations List. At your first appointment, your family will be eligible for all of the helpful services that WIC provides.

WIC benefits may be used at Indiana WIC approved stores to purchase:

- Milk and milk products
- Fruits and vegetables
- Eggs
- Cereal
- Whole grains (bread, rice, tortillas)
- Tofu
- Baby food
- Infant formula
